OVERVIEW

The IBCP framework allows students to specialize in, and focus on, a career-related pathway. The programme's three-part framework comprises the study of a minimum of two Diploma Programme courses alongside career-related studies and the distinctive IBCP core which is designed to create a bridge that connects each student's chosen Diploma Programme courses and career-related studies.

Diploma programme courses

Students complete at least two Diploma Programme courses, either at standard or higher level, in any of the following subject groups:

- ➔ Studies in language and literature
- ➔ Language acquisition
- ➔ Individuals and societies
- ➔ Sciences
- ➔ Mathematics
- ➔ The arts
- ➔ The courses chosen should be relevant to the students' career-related studies.

For IBCP students, both the Diploma Programme courses, and career related study provide the theoretical underpinning and academic rigor of the programme; and the IBCP core helps them to develop skills and competencies required for lifelong learning.

THE CORE OF THE IBCP

- ➔ Reflective Project (RP),
- ➔ Language Development (LD),
- ➔ Service Learning and
- ➔ Personal and Professional Skills (PPS).

Reflective Project

The reflective project is one of the four compulsory components of the IB Career-related Programme (CP) core. The reflective project is an in-depth body of work produced over an extended period of time and submitted year 2 of the Career-related Programme. It is the product of the students' own initiative and should reflect their personal experience of the CP. The reflective project is intended to promote high-level research, writing and extended communication skills, intellectual discovery and creativity through a variety of different approaches. The reflective project is assessed using grades A to E, with A representing the highest level of achievement. A minimum of 50 hours is expected to be devoted to the reflective project. In addition to a written essay (see Options), students keep a record of their reflections on the process of undertaking and completing the reflective project using the Reflections on planning and progress form (RPPF). This record forms part of the final reflective project assessment.

- ➔ The Reflective Project is a structured piece of work that can take a variety of forms including an academic paper, a video documentary, a short film or a website to name but a few options.
- ➔ A student will be able to identify, analyse, explore, critically discuss and evaluate the ethical dilemma of an issue arising from their career-related study and linked to some contemporary event or situation.

Language development is one of the four compulsory components of the IB Career-related Programme (CP) core. Language development ensures that all students have access to and are exposed to a language programme that will assist and further their understanding of the wider world. The ability to communicate in more than one language is essential to the IB's concept of an international education. Language development encourages students to improve their proficiency in a language other than their best language. Language Development provides the students with the necessary skills and intercultural understanding to enable them to communicate using the chosen language in a variety of contexts. A language portfolio is required to demonstrate students' engagement with the language. The IB acknowledges the crucial role of language in an IB education and, as such, is committed to providing language development for all CP students.

The aims of language development are to:

- ➔ Enable students to understand and use the language they have studied in context
- ➔ Encourage an awareness and appreciation of the different perspectives of people from other cultures
- ➔ Provide students with a basis for further study, work and leisure through the use of an additional language
- ➔ Provide the opportunity for enjoyment, creativity and intellectual stimulation through knowledge of an additional language.
- ➔ These aims are applicable to all students, regardless of the level of linguistic proficiency they have when they begin the CP. Language development is designed to accommodate all students and ensure they are exposed to language other than their best language that will assist and further their understanding of the wider world.

Applications to UK Universities

Students applying to the UK will submit applications through UCAS and will use a tariff point calculator to convert their BTECs and IB subjects into tariff points. Some universities use UCAS Tariff points in their entry requirements. This is a points total achieved by converting qualifications (such as A levels, BTEC, IB subjects) into points, making it simpler for universities and colleges to compare applicants. The BTEC offered at DIS is equivalent to 112 UCAS points (equivalent to 2 A levels). Each individual IB subject is equivalent to up to 56 tariff points. IBCP Alumni

Since 2015, 80 students have undertaken the IBCP programme at DIS. We are proud of the success of our IBCP students who have enjoyed further education at University in the UK, USA, Canada, the Netherlands and Australia.

Did you find an IB education prepared you for university? Why?

Yes, I definitely think that IB had prepared me for my university. Before IB, I found it difficult to study and prepare for exams, as I never really learned how to “study”. After IB, I was more aware of how to prepare, how to study best and what study methods work best for me.

Have you had a particular moment or success you are proud of during your time at DIS? tell us about it!

A particular success I am proud of was being awarded the CAS and CP Award at our graduation ceremony with three of my closest friends. We were very honoured to get this award as throughout the two years of IB, we contributed a lot towards the certificate programme and CAS and it was great to see that this was being recognised by our IB Coordinators.

What are some of your best memories of your time at DIS?

My best memory of my time at DIS was definitely my diverse group of Friends. Looking back now, I think I was super privileged to have so many different nationalities and personalities within my friend group and being able to learn from each other through having different cultural backgrounds and experiences. I am still in close contact with my friends from DIS, even though we do not speak every day we make sure we meet up when we are back home in Dubai.

Transport Pilot License (ongoing)

How did you reach where you are today?

All the cliché things graduated students say. But, having a good education and being in a diverse school such as DIS shaped the person I am today.

What are your future aspirations?

I have aspirations of working in a major airline in the next 4-5 years (airlines such as Emirates, Qantas, Singapore) after working regionally here in Malaysia. I also really want to open a restaurant in the future, something a lot of Emirates pilots actually do in Dubai.

Did the Reflective Project and Service Learning prepare you for university? Are there skills you developed that you still use today?

The skills I developed during IB are still used frequently today. Skills such as team work, and essay writing.

As an IB student, how did you shape your studies to your interests? What courses were most valuable?

Having taken Math's specifically really helps with certain aspects of flight school in subjects such as performance and principles of flight.

Did you find an IB education prepared you for university? Why?

Having an IB education, to me prepares you for university and more. Being needed to manage my time efficiently and being under the pressure of deadlines really shaped how I carry myself today.
